Free NHS WIFI Terms and Conditions

The practice makes no representations or warranties concerning the availability or security of the free wireless network, takes no responsibility and assumes no liability for any content uploaded, shared, transmitted, or downloaded by users or any third party, or for anything users may encounter.

On accessing the Wi-Fi within a practice, the user will be required to accept the rules of usage.

All NHS Internet/security/user policies apply to the use of Wi-Fi.

The practice reserves the right to disconnect any user at any time and for any reason.

Inappropriate use of the free NHS Wireless Network is not permitted;

- Users must respect the privacy and intellectual property rights of others.
- Users must respect the integrity of the network and any other public or private computing and network systems.
- Use of the free NHS Wireless Network for malicious, fraudulent, or misrepresentative purposes is prohibited.
- Nothing may be installed or used that modifies, disrupts, or interferes in any way with service for any user, host, or network.

For all use of the Internet the Wi-Fi UK laws must be complied with. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- The internet must not be used for illegal purposes, including but not limited to: copyright infringement, obscenity, libel, slander, fraud, defamation, plagiarism, harassment, intimidation and bullying, forgery, impersonation, gambling or computer tampering (for example spreading computer viruses)
- Offensive, abusive, bullying, harassing, homophobic, sexist, racist, hateful or otherwise, discriminatory material
- Use of the internet in a manner that is not consistent with the strategic objectives or values of the practice misrepresent the organisation or violates any of its policies.
